BRIEF MENTION.

The supply of corn in the town of Anderson is exhausted, and our railroad communication is cut off, so that we cannot obtain it without much trouble.

Howard's Scioptician Exhibition paid our town a visit on last Monday and Tuesday nights. The exhibition, we learn, was very good, but received a very small patronage. Mr. E. G. Murrah, D. D. S., announces in another column that he will be in Anderson on the 3rd of July, prepared to execute dental work in the most approved manner. Although there was no public celebration of St. John's Day in Anderson, there was a pleasant gathering of the fraternity in Masonic Hall on last Saturday evening. The attendance was a good one. Mr. S. W. Sherard's mill dam on Little Generostee Creek was washed away by the freshet. It has, however, been repaired, and is now in running order. The country on this creek was badly washed. The insertion of communications in the Intelligencer cannot be secured except by the author making known his name. The init als will not be sufficient. No deviation

We would call attention to the advertise ment of Messrs Richards & Wilson, in which they announce that the Pendleton Factory Wool Cards are now in operation. Persons wishing wool carded can be accommodated by carrying it to the Factory. They also have rolls and Factory Yarn for sale.

See the advertisement of Messrs. J. & J. R. Wilson, in which they announce that they are now ready for wool carding at their mills near Williamston. They had their mill in running order for grinding wheat and corn within two days after the treshet, affording their patrons a fine yield in quality and Capt. James A. Hoyt, of the Intelligencer, left on last Thursday for St. Louis, to attend the National Democratic Convention, which convened on the 27th instant. We hope he will return with a cheering account of the prospects of victory, under the lead of such a man as Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, for the Presidency.

We regret to announce the death of little Eugene, son of Mr. W. H. Cater, whose death we announced but a short time since. The little boy was with his mother in Atlanta, and died of cholera infantum on the 22nd inst. His remains were interred beside his father's grave in the Presbyterian cemetery at this place.

The Anderson Reading Club met last Tuesday night at the residence of Judge J. P. Reed, and elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, Prof. J. W. Ligon; Vice Presidents, A. J. Watt and Thos. F. Hill; Secretary and Treasurer, Henry Frierson; Critic, Capt. James A. Hoyt. The Club is in a flourishing condition, and has about sixty members.

The citizens of Anderson held their anstroyed, call for some remarks upon the connual school meeting in the Court House on last Saturday. Mr. O. H. P. Fant was called to the chair, and Messrs. E. P. Breazeale and but unless the following points are carefully Innes I. Orr the motion was adopted. The meeting then adjourned.

There is to be a large fishing party on ·Rocky River next Saturday, to be composed of gentlemen and their families from Anderson and vicinity. We learn that they propose frying the fish they catch, but they propose to provide against contingencies by carrying a basket dinner. Every one will be obligated to fish at least three hours, so there will be a severe infliction upon those who have poor luck.

Much of the bottom land upon which corn was washed away in the recent freshet have been replanted, and the farmers are still busily engaged in replanting and repairing their damages. They have evinced a cheerfulness and energy in their mistortunes which is very highly commendable, and it is to be hoped their industry will reap an ample reward, and much of the damage be repaired by an abundant crop year.

Our farmers have been so busily engaged in repairing their losses from the flood that the town has been almost deserted, and it has been difficult to obtain further particulars of the damage in this County. Both the bridges over Eighteen Mile Creek were washed away. The bridge at the Pendleton Factory, on Three and Twenty Creek, was also washed away, and the one on the Pendleton road over Six and Twenty was badly damaged. The lower bridge over Eighteen Mile Creek has been re-built and the one over Six and Twenty has been repaired. The Commissioners will have the crossings over all streams repaired as rapidly as circumstances will allow. Indeed, many of them have already been replaced or repaired.

"who would have thought water could do so much harm?" It was not the water alone that was to blame, but also the culpable negligence of the builder. Well, I suppose we must put up with the loss of a few lives occasionally, until some one becomes interested enough in the matter to try what a little legislation would do for it. What if our able representatives tried it. We are glad to announce that Miss Emma Moore, daughter of Capt. James B. Moore of this town, has just returned from the Richmond Female Institute, at which excellent institution of learning she has been pursuing a collegiate course of study during the past session. Miss Emma graduated last year in the Carolina Collegiate institute, at this place, and then repaired to Richmond for the purpose of extending her college course. She has now returned, to spend her vacation at home, and brings with her the evidence of studious habits and excellent attainments, in the form of diplomas in the schools of Moral Philosophy, English and Composition, Mathematics and Literature. In addition, she was awarded a beautiful gold medal, with the inscription, "R. F. I. -Spelling," on one side, and "Sen. Class-1st Honor," on the other. These testimonials of proficiency are gratifying to her friends, and we extend our congratulations, hoping that her success in the future will be as great as in the past.

SPECIAL NOTICES. A Flower that Changes its Color. Botany is a division of natural science which treats of plants, and a study of Vegetable Phisiology must be the foun-dation of botanical knowledge—a study only possible by the improvements in the microscope and in organic chemistry. As plants are not scattered haphazard over the earth, botanical geography must be studied, and, with this, plant-history. Botany will be applied to the wants of every-day life, as in Agriculture, Horti-culture, or Medical Botany. Animals often exhibit a marvelous instinct in se lecting medicinal herbs, and an observation of their habits has often, even in the present time, led to most valuable discoveries. And should man, with his knowledge and appliances, fail to discover less than the brute? It is of Medical botany we would speak, or of the HEPATINE PLANT, discovered in Southern Nubia, the Flower of which changes its color with every change of the atmosphere. The remarkable changes and variations of this Plant and Flower have been for years our special study, resulting in the discovery of its possession of wonderful medical properties, the existence and value of which have heretofore been entirely unknown to medical science. After much labor and scientific investigation, we have succeeded in extracting its peculiar medicinal principles, which is a specific and cure for all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels; a permanent cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Spleen, Constipation, Jaundice, and all Billious Complaints. Of course we cannot send a living Flower of this Plant to all who read of Hepatine; but to all who will send their address to Merrell & COUDEN, Philadelphia, Pa,, with a threecent stamp for return postage, we will send FREE a fac-simile of the Flower, that will change its color just the same as the real Hepatine Flower.

History possesses fewer examples of more heroic bearing and self-sacrificing efforts for the advancement of the material interests of mankind than that exhibited by this noble marking than that exhibited by this hoose martyr in his exertions to make a discovery which if accomplished would open to the world advantages beyond computation.
